FROM THE MINISTER

Message from The Honourable Dato Sri Haji Abdul Karim Rahman Hamzah

- Minister of Tourism, Creative Industry and Performing Arts Sarawak
- Minister of Youth, Sports and Entrepreneur Development Sarawak

Since its humble beginnings in 2017, the WAK movement has grown into a beacon of creativity and community spirit in Sarawak. What began as a grassroots initiative has today evolved into one of Sarawak's signature festivals celebrating arts, culture, and lifestyle.

What makes WAK truly special is its collaborative spirit. It brings together government agencies, industry players, and the creative community in a shared effort to champion Sarawak's vibrant cultural landscape. More than just a festival, WAK is a movement powered by community, creativity, and meaningful partnerships.

As we celebrate the 8th edition of WAK Festival Kuching and the 3rd edition of both WAK SibU and WAK Miri, I am proud to witness how this movement continues to grow across Sarawak. WAK SibU and WAK Miri have become increasingly vibrant, with more creative events and collaborations taking place each year. I encourage creatives in the central and northern regions to continue making full use of the WAK platforms every June to showcase their talents, experiment with new ideas, and connect with wider audiences. These opportunities may also pave the way for creatives to stage their events at WAK Kuching in October.

I thank the local councils, collaborators, and creative communities whose support continues to drive this movement forward. Together, let us continue to elevate Sarawak's tourism and creative industries while celebrating the vibrant spirit and diversity of our people.

CHAIRMAN'S WELCOME

Message from Mr. Clarence Ting Ing Horh, Chairman Sibu Municipal Council

It gives me great pleasure to welcome everyone to the 3rd edition of WAK SibU Festival 2026, taking place from 12-14 June 2026, a celebration of arts, culture, and lifestyle that continues to energise and transform our town through creativity and community participation.

Since WAK SibU was first introduced in 2024 as part of the wider WAK movement, we have witnessed a marked increase in creative events, collaborations, and artistic activities taking place across SibU. This growing momentum reflects the strength of our local creative community and the increasing appreciation for arts and culture among the public.

WAK SibU has become more than just a festival. It is now an important platform for creatives, performers, entrepreneurs, and community groups to experiment, collaborate, and showcase their talents to wider audiences. I encourage even more creatives to take advantage of this platform, as it opens up opportunities for greater visibility, networking, and future collaborations, including participation in WAK Kuching later in the year.

Over the next few days, our public spaces, cultural landmarks, and city streets will come alive with performances, exhibitions, workshops, installations, and many exciting experiences for all to enjoy. Let us continue to activate and energise our town through creativity, innovation, and community spirit.

I thank all collaborators, partners, volunteers, and festivalgoers for making WAK SibU possible. Together, let us continue building a vibrant and creative future for SibU.

By the community, for the community.

WAK SIBU FESTIVAL 2026

Celebrating Arts, Culture & Lifestyle
12-14 June 2026 · Sibu Heritage Centre & Around the City

Since making its exciting debut in 2024, WAK SibU has continued to grow into a vibrant celebration of creativity, culture and community in the heart of central Sarawak. Now returning for its third edition, the festival is back with even more energy, fresh collaborations and exciting experiences that continue to build momentum for SibU's growing creative scene.

What first began in Kuching in 2017 as a grassroots movement has evolved into a statewide creative platform, made possible through the strong support of the Ministry of Tourism, Creative Industry and Performing Arts Sarawak (MITCP), together with many dedicated public and private sector partners who believe in the power of the arts to bring people and places to life.

With the enthusiastic support of the Sibu Municipal Council and the local community, WAK SibU has steadily carved out its place as an important creative platform for the region. It is especially encouraging to see greater traction each year, with more collaborators, partners, artists and organisations coming on board. This growing support reflects the exciting potential of WAK SibU as a space for local creatives to connect, experiment, showcase their talents and reach wider audiences.

As Malaysia celebrates Visit Malaysia Year 2026-2027, we are excited to welcome even more visitors from near and far to discover the unique charm and personality of SibU. Through its diverse line-up of performances, exhibitions, workshops, showcases and street activations, WAK SibU will once again celebrate our colourful arts, culture and lifestyles with the world.

Over three exciting days, the town will come alive with music, movement, visual arts and creative experiences across public spaces and cultural landmarks. Expect inspiring collaborations between SibU's homegrown talents and creatives from Kuching and across Sarawak, all coming together to energise and activate the town in fresh and unexpected ways.

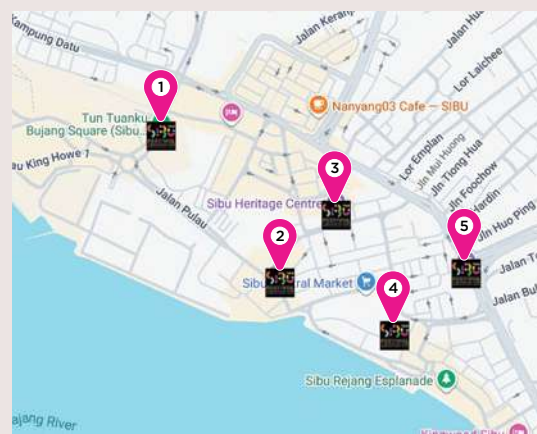

WAK SibU is more than just a festival. It is a creative movement driven by community, collaboration and imagination. With continued support from everyone involved, WAK SibU is fast becoming a signature highlight on the town's annual calendar and a growing creative force for the region.

PLAN AHEAD

Sibu's town centre may be small and compact but it can get quite busy especially during peak hours. Plan ahead, as traffic and parking can be tricky even if places look close on the map. Walking is often the easiest way to explore, and you'll likely stumble upon cosy kopitiams, delicious street food, and hidden gems along the way.

SECURING TICKETS

Tickets are handled by individual event organisers. If an event requires a ticket, simply reach out to the event organiser to secure your spot. All ticket sales go directly to the organiser. If the event is free, be sure to block your calendar so you don't miss out!

STAY IN THE LOOP!

Follow us on Instagram and Facebook at @waxsibu and @waxfestival for the latest news, updates, and exclusive media.

Tag @waxsibu and use #waxsibu to share your WAK experience and memories with us!
